laid down. Any trader or other person infringing the provisions of the Forest Law or the terms of his license or not returning his license on the expiration of the time allowed, shall be liable to be dealt with under the Mysore Forest Regulation. To meet the convenience of purchasers exporting wood through His Majesty's Territories, the Forest Officer will, on request, issue to each such purchaser one or more licenses indicating the weight of wood or number of pieces, bags, &c., in each cart or consignment. All time-expired licenses shall be considered as null and void, and extension of time shall not be granted, except for special and cogent reasons and under the Deputy Commissioner's orders.

VI.—General.

10. Sandalwood sold under these rules shall not, after removal from the kothi, be stored anywhere in the Mysore State without the permission in writing of the District Forest Officer concerned.

11. In conformity with standing rules, no sandalwood can be sold by private individuals within the Mysore Territories or be moved from place to place without a license to be granted by the Forest Officer in charge of the Range.

12. The District Forest Officer shall be at liberty, with the concurrence of the Deputy Commissioner or the Officer deputed by the Deputy Commissioner, to stop the sale at any time without giving any reason to the intending purchasers.

13. With the exception of damage or loss arising from gross negligence on the part of the officials of the Forest Department concerned, the wood will remain at the kothi at the risk of the purchaser from the date of sale until it is finally weighed out under rule 6. Thereafter the Forest Department will not accept any kind of risk.

14. Copies of these rules will be made available at the time of auction for the information of intending purchasers.
